POINTS OF ORDER

A motion to adjourn is not debatable, by Walker, 1189.

A motion to recommit takes precedence over a roll call, when a bill is up for debate, by Dent, 2986.

No objection was made to the affirmative roll on Bill No. 490 (Senate) amending Act, 1947, providing for prompt, peaceful and just settlement of labor disputes between public utility employers and employees engaged in furnishing transportation to the public; when announced, so no objection should be registered thereafter, by Kephart, 2986.

The bills which were recommitted have no seconder to the motions recommitting, by Haluska, 3134.
